Uni is in fort

Wu-wu-wu-zap is very scared that he is under siege by the good guys. He has reinforcements, and he maybe will be spared. We don't know what the Ethanlish soldiers plan to do with him. His wall is working perfectly. We don't know if he will win. Wu-wu-wu-zap is defending his fort very bravely.

1

Dollhouse Coming to Dining Room.

Dollhouse is coming to Mother Coast again. It will soon go back to the dining room.

2

Hannah's Fort is Gone.

Hannah's Fort is disabled, and now the dollhouse can go back. Hannah says, "I can make another one."

3

Hannahland Nowhere.

Hannahland is not really anywhere. Hannah does not find any place for it, besides the basement.

Interview with Velvet

Velvet is organizing an interview, and Hannahlish people have been talking about it.

Velvet is thinking about an interview in the basement, if the walls are fixed up. Hannah was thinking about making a Hannahlish town there. Bingo, currently the capital of Hannahland, is upstairs, but maybe they could move it.

Velvet was thinking about the interview being upstairs, but usually Hannah doesn't have time for setups. She'd need a very clean one, so that Velvet can interview with Wu-Wu-Wu Zap if they catch him. There is also a snuggle party in Velvet's interview, to have fun and snuggle. Velvet just wants people to be happy and have fun at her interview.

Velvet does not know when the interview is. You will be able to come to the living room and ask your questions about the interview with Velvet and Hannah.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap

We do not know much about Wu-Wu-Wu Zap. He is a mysterious and not very good Uni. We think that, if we dress up as the Bad Guy Council, maybe he will obey us. But then what will happen to the real Bad Guy Council? We think that Wu-Wu-Wu Zap is still a mystery. We can study how his magic works. To Hannah, he looks so cute. But we think that he's very interesting, for his magic powers! If he became good, we might benefit from his magic powers, and we would be able to chase the bad guys away for good. If he was good, he would be okay with that.

WORLD GLOBE IS OPEN

The World Globe is currently open, and it costs $39. The World Globe is to look at the world, and sometimes you can spin it around. It is when you see the whole world, but it does not have Ethanland and Hannahland on it. It only has the states that are not in the house, like North America or Japan.

It is on the coffee table, but sometimes it is upstairs because Daddy sometimes cleans it up. But wherever it is, Hannah can show you, because she is very good at treasure hunts.
