This is a newspaper, so please enjoy.

Dollhouse Leaves Bingo

The Dollhouse has left Bingo, going to Mother Coast in the Dining Room. It has brought troops for Uni Bust day.

Setup

There is a new setup in the basement, and Hannah is sure that everyone will like it. If they clear it out, it will be very nice.

Snuggle Party

There is a snuggle party coming up on the weekend, in the afternoon. Hannah invented it, and there is also a poster about the snuggle party. You snuggle and play there. It will be very nice.

Big Battle

As you may know, Wu-wu-wu-zap's fortress is under siege! The good guys are attacking his fortress. We do not know if he will surrender again. We think that he would not surrender, because he does not like surrendering. He loves battle. But maybe we could just capture him, and then maybe he would surrender. But we are still attacking temporarily.

New Toy!

The bunny slippers have come, and they have very nice abilities.

- They go on your feet.
- They are very nice.
- They are very cute.
- They are very big.

The bunny slippers are quite handy, and Hannah wants them to be very comfy. You could tell the government of Hannahland about the bunny slippers, and they can tell you everything that happened.

This is their story:

Once upon a time, Hannah went to the basement. She was looking for the dress-up bin, but she mistook the bin and she found the bunny slippers. She tried them on upstairs, and they fit perfectly! So she kept them on to this day.

The End.

We think that the bunny slippers are very cute.

Pixy's Birthday

Today is Pixy's birthday! Hannah has made a present, and you can make one too. It will be in the kitchen. We have not yet made the cake. But maybe you could help Hannah: just meet her in the kitchen (WITHOUT PIXY!) and talk about the secret plans for her birthday.

Oh, and in the kitchen, there is a setup, and Hannah will be inside there. Just come to Hannah and she will tell you where it is. She will also tell you about the secret plans for Pixy's birthday. Keep Pixy out of your way, since it's her birthday! She will be spying on everything you do, because she is very excited for her birthday.
