Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Surrenders!

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap surrenders because his enemies have worn him down enough. But on the Ethanlish side, doctors have struggled to keep up with the surge in patients. The weapons that have been lost number in the trillions. It is now safe to go to Bingo! "I feel so defeated!" said the unicorn. "Our troops got the job done," said General Velvet.

The weather will be sunny up until Saturday.

Taxes Rise in Torumekia

Torumekian taxes are set to rise, owing to the war with the Bad Guy Council. Businesses in Torumekia are closing everywhere due to this tax situation. The capital of Griffynland has undergone heavy damage, but is rebuilding. The Torumekian country is becoming very poor and is currently taxing heavily.

Ecalo Bombing Continues

The city of Ecalo is in ruins. Zurg planes have been quite efficient in carrying out the battle plans of the Zurg Nation. Tons of antiaircraft fire, ammunition, and planes have been rushed to Ecalo. Taxes are going up in the parts around Ecalo, too. The town hall has been heavily damaged, and is trying to recover. We think that Zurg may come across into Ecalo, start to bomb Nifzufer, and then march on to Aca and take over. Nifzufer will be quite a loss to the Empire and all other countries of the United Council. The United Council headquarters is there. If Aca is taken, the Empire may fall.
