Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Defends Fort

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap, famous criminal villain, is currently holding up his fortress very strongly. Although forces try to break it, it is of no avail. Godzilla has busted the wall, and they are launching rockets at that area hoping to make it crash down. The tank, Mewnes, Dog, and Starlet (the white cat) are trying to bust down the laser gate.

The weather will be sunny up until Tuesday. ☀️

ETH Dollhouse Will Leave for Dining Room on Tuesday

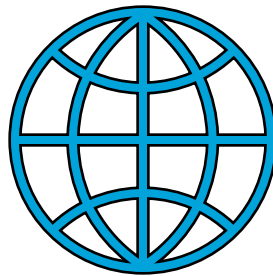

The ETH Dollhouse, imperial flagship of the Ethanlish fleet, will leave for Mother Coast on May 23. It is carrying reinforcements to stop Wu-Wu-Wu Zap. The emperor is on the ship; he may get off at the camp at Mother Coast and stay there, not going to the front lines due to danger.

Hannah's Fort Near Bingo

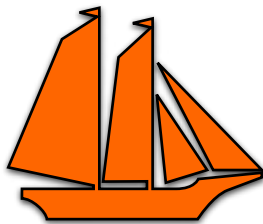

Hannah's fort is near Bingo, and is held up by the dollhouse and the rocky cliff. But when the dollhouse leaves for Mother Coast, it will have to be supported by something else. Remember that Bingo is a Hannahlish town, and that the fort is Hannahlish too.
