Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Surrenders Again

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap, famous criminal villain, has surrendered for the second time, and this time we think that he will surrender for good. We do not know where to put him, but that will be debated over the coming days. He will be transported to Bingo on the ETH Dollhouse. We do not know where we will put him in the dollhouse, because he is very big and might not be able to fit in. He probably will be able to fit in, though.

The weather will be sunny up until Sunday. ☀️

Admiral McGonagall Gives Speech

Admiral Minerva McGonagall has given a victory speech on top of the Wu-Wu-Wu Zap fortress. The lines were:

"We have won against Wu-Wu-Wu Zap! Hooray! Hooray! We have won against Wu-Wu-Wu Zap! Hooray! We will have to record it in books to commemorate this great battle. For our troops and battle equipment are exhausted."

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap: Great Defeat!

The new Wu-Wu-Wu Zap fortress will be open to buy from now on. It costs $1,128. If you buy it, you can also buy another not-so-secure fortress near it. This fortress costs $298. The state the main fortress is in is terrible. You can just ask Ethan if you want to fix it up, or ask him questions about the property.
