★Troops Return★

After their victorious campaign on the new Wu-Wu-Wu Zap fortress, the troops will return to Bingo and be welcomed by the people. There is a victory parade planned for next Sunday; it will take place on Crabapple Street, starting at Twinkle Tower and ending at the Emperor's Tea House.

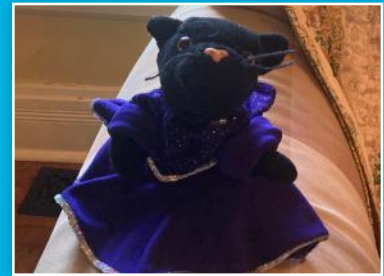

The Dollhouse will not dock inside of the port because it is too big. It will dock outside of the port, in the little channel between the harbor and Coffee Table Island. The coffee table is a tropical island and holds the most exquisite animals, including tropical parrots that speak different languages, tigers, etc.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap New Fort Closes

New Wu-Wu-Wu Zap fortress has been closed because Wu-Wu-Wu Zap wants to live on his own, and he asked Blue Eyes if he could remain there. He now lives in it.

General Velvet was at today's trial, and wanted Wu-Wu-Wu Zap to go to Hannah's house. General Velvet and Christopher may establish a hotel in the old Uni fort.

Myths of Meteors Crashing on Coffee Table Island

Last week, while Wu-Wu-Wu Zap was attacking Heaven, people from Bingo reported a fiery ball, streaming red, crashing on the coffee table. People suspect that it is a meteor, but there could be other explanations:

- Wu-Wu-Wu Zap firing at coffee table, trying to cause craziness in Bingo.
- A letter launch capsule, trying to get from the front lines to Bingo but was hit by Unicorn fire and crashed on the coffee table.
- A fighter jet crashing.
