Party Island Declares War

Party Island, which was neutral, has declared war on the Bad Guy Council (BGC) for trying to attack its capital (and only) city. Since they do not have much of an army, Pixy allows Ethanlish troops to battle on the island. We are trying to stop the BGC from invading party island. The ETH Dollhouse will leave Party Island very soon due to the battle.

The weather will be rainy up until Saturday. ☁️

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Interview

Today is Wu-Wu-Wu Zap's interview. It is published in full below.

Tigger Jack: "Why were you a bad guy in the first place?"

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap: "Because I thought that it would lead me to fame and victory and riches."

TJ: "Where did you grow up?"

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap: "I grew up on Alpha Twelve, in a jungle."

TJ: "What brought you here, to the house?"

W: "Well, there was a Zurg spaceship that brought me to the house to do my mission."

TJ: "Do you like that you're being mentioned in the news?"

W: "Yes I do."

TJ: "Are you upset that you lost your fortress?"

W: "Yes, I am very upset. I'm still trying to get over it."

TJ: "Thank you for attending this interview."

W: "You're welcome. It was my pleasure."

Pirate Recruiting Crew

Pirate's ship will need more crew because it will need to raid big ships. Pirate is the Ethanlish admiral that has served the Ethanlish military, mostly in land combat. Pirate does not really want to work for the Ethanlish anymore, but he will attack any bad guy ships, and he won't attack any United Council ones. If you want to apply for the job, you can ask Brezhnev, deputy mayor of Bingo.
