ETH DOLLHOUSE LEAVES PARTY ISLAND

POUNCE WILL LEAD THE RECON MISSION TO THE HALLWAY

WU-WU-WU ZAP ACCIDENTALLY THOUGHT THAT A TOP-SECRET BUILDING HAD A HOT TUB INSIDE OF IT AND IT BLEW UP

THE FELINE TIMES

💥 Party Island Blows Up 💥

Party Island, which had declared war on the Bad Guy Council (BGC), experienced so much fighting that the whole top blew up and everybody evacuated. They boarded the Dollhouse and other small boats and left. We do not know where they are bound. You shouldn't visit Party Island, because it will probably have a big battle again.

The weather will be cloudy up until Wednesday. ☁️

Reconnaissance Mission to Hallway

After the Hallway's blow-up, Commander Pounce will lead a very large group of troops into the area. Their objective will be to scout out the land and to make sure that it is safe for the larger force to come in. The area is probably completely destroyed, so they won't have to face many enemy troops. It will require a lot of people because we do not know how many enemy troops there are. We think that it will take at least two days if there is not much battling, otherwise three or four days.

The ETH Dollhouse will dock there after everything is made safe. The Emperor will not get off, although it will deliver troops. The Dollhouse will stay for at least one day, and then it will dock at Bingo and deliver the siege cannon and some people to it. You can get onto the ETH Dollhouse and go to Bingo if you want.

Bedtime Animals United

An organization has been invented! It will help keep Wu-Wu-Wu Zap in check (a chess expression) because Wu-Wu-Wu Zap will need to be guarded so that he doesn't cause trouble (like the giant explosion in the Dining Room) or act badly again.

The location of the club is in Bingo, underneath the Unicorn Fortress. You just have to ask the ticket machine if you can have a special pass to enter Bedtime Animals United Headquarters to get in. In there, you can sign up; you'll just have to ask Scat if you can join. It will do things like guard Wu-Wu-Wu Zap (as we said up above), give him food, and keep him happy.

General Velvet is Three-Star

General Velvet is sitting with Bedtime Animals United where they sit together now: on one of the Dining Room armchairs moved into the Living Room. Vice Emperor Ethan L. Koenig thinks that Velvet is super-cute. Velvet is a three-star general, and may be a commander if she does well enough! In Bad Guy Land Velvet is wanted, but in Ethanland Velvet is loved.

Velvet has not yet experienced very large battling, but Velvet has seen some battling. We hope to move Velvet to a good position so that Velvet can try to ward off the Bad Guy Council. Velvet is still a not-very-experienced general, so Velvet probably won't have a sword and charge into battle with her troops.
