Vacation to London

In this picture, we can see St. Paul's Cathedral from the Millennium Bridge going across the Thames River. The animals that Ethan has brought to London are: Emperor Blue Eyes Cott, Pounce Cutie, and Mewnes Fuzzles. Hannah has also brought Velvet, Monkey, and Baby. Please ignore the buildings to the left and right in the picture.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap is quite destructive and should be stopped. Sign up for the anti-Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Club!

Fun at London!

The AirBnB house that we are staying at is near the London Underground stop Caledonian Road. In the top left is a photo taken inside the London Transportation Museum, while the rest were in the AirBnB. There is also a new toy who is friends with Georgie the Raven (see the sidebar) and who was purchased at Osborne House on the Isle of Wight: Bee! Bee has joined the Air Force, like Georgie, and is having fun battling Wu-Wu-Wu Zap.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Ethan & Hannah Koenig went to Buckingham Palace on July 2nd 2023. They came to see the changing of the guard.

Georgie the Raven is on a train to Farnham, England, and will be mentioned in the news later. We will have an interview with him next newspaper, and some of the other new animals with him. Georgie is very interested in battle.
