Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Causes Train Crash!

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap, famous criminal villain, has recently caused a train crash on the island next to Bingo. It was a passenger train, and it had 150 passengers on it. 140 passengers were injured. Ten were okay.

The cause of the train crash was Wu-Wu-Wu Zap trying to destroy some stuff and rip up the tracks (which definitely would have caused the train crash anyway), but the animals restrained him as hard as they could. But then they exploded off towards the train tracks, where the passenger train had just left the station. The engineer put on the emergency brakes as soon as they saw them, but it was too late, and the train crashed.

Evil Spider Guy Attacks Bingo

Evil Spider Guy has just come out of hiding, and has charged down Crabapple Street in Bingo, heading for the barn where Fairy is. He has been disrupting traffic, sending cars willy-nilly, bonking into each other, causing crashes, and has been evading the police and military from capturing him. He may have stolen some secret battle plans to battle the Bad Guys. He is going to ignite his thrusters and launch onto the barn, or maybe over it and into the sky.

Evil Spider Guy was last seen in the dining room, at the last big enormous dining room battle. We do not know how he escaped, but we interviewed the train driver that was driving on the tracks, and he said that he saw Evil Spider Guy riding on the tracks in front of him, with Boba Fett and some other evil villains. He must have been trying to escape the Republic of Ethanland's military forces, and would have to go into hiding.

The picture on the left, however, is of Chunk (a Toy Story 3 character), who had to have some special medical treatment. He was injured in the famous unicorn battle where the siege cannon attacked him, and it only took two days. He surrendered on May 27, 2023. Chunk has been recovering for a long time. Wu-Wu-Wu Zap did very bad deeds to the good guys that fought against him. Chunk was one. Big Buzz Lightyear was another: he is currently recovering from a coma on the ETH Dollhouse, and we think that he will wake up on September 7, 8, or 9.

Things to Do in Bingo

Bingo has been modernized with an elevated train system that goes from Twinkle Tower Level 2 to Bingo Government Building, where you can have Emperor's Tea Time. One time it caught fire, but the fire department put it out. It was because of Dino Tape, a Decepticon.

Emperor's Tea Time open! Emperor Blue Eyes has returned to Bingo on the ETH Dollhouse, and is having Emperor's Tea Time in this shot with some Star Eyeses. You can also find Imperial Bingo Theater and Brezhnev, Mayor of Bingo, there.
