Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Captured!

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap, famous criminal villain, has recently been captured. Douglas the Bunny was very good at capturing him. Douglas earned a reward of $1,000 for capturing Wu-Wu-Wu Zap.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap has not surrendered this time. We have captured him! He has been put in a jail, underneath Binkevis Hotel (where the conference room used to be).

The weather will be rainy up until Tuesday. 🌧️

Velvet's Mission to Hallway

Velvet is going to lead a reconnaissance mission to the Hallway to conquer it. Velvet could become Governor of the Hallway. Another force will probably attack the wall that the Bad Guys are building.

Mewnes is friends with Velvet, and is going to come on the mission, as well as a lot of other animals. They will take the Dollhouse from Bingo to the Hallway. But if they break down the wall, heavy waters will come to the Bathroom, which is their ally! But the Bathroom has sandbags, and is building them up and making an anti-water wall.

Unicorn Jail

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap's jail underneath Binkevis Hotel courtyard (which is now a boot camp) is very equipped so that Wu-Wu-Wu Zap won't escape. It has a security camera, lots of guards, a big artillery, lots of alarm bells and other things, a coded elevator, and heavily armored walls. Wu-Wu-Wu Zap has many things attached to him: an anti-magic-maker (which removed his magic), some sleeping potion that you can use to make you go to sleep, a feel-tired potion so that he can't go to events where he could cause trouble, and a cable to channel away his magic.

Though there is a danger of the jail being near to Binkevis Hotel, people think that it is an okay idea. They have a radio, too, and the elevator that was mentioned sometimes is broken by Wu-Wu-Wu Zap when he blasts.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Captured

Unicorn Fort mysteries have been happening for a long time. There are lots of secret passages, and gremlins and other things. It's a very strange fortress, and will probably fall down, revealing all the stuff. But a lot of the stuff is underground.

The Battle Fortress is probably going to be taken down to the ground because it needs to undergo more construction. We're planning to lower it slowly down to the surface of the Dining Room table. They will use cables to lower it, and they'll have to move it once it's on the ground. We are already making plans, and pieces are going to arrive.
