Evil Spider Guy Captured!

Evil Spider Guy was just taking off with his motorbike, preparing to land on Bingo and cause chaos, when his motorbike malfunctioned. It was hit by enemy missiles and anti-aircraft fire. He was just about to call Wu-Wu-Wu Zap to blast Bingo with a laser he had set up in the bookshelf when his motorbike finally started falling apart. It plummeted towards an alleyway in Bingo, where bad guys were fighting the good guys after having escaped from Twinkle Tower. There was a giant hole in Twinkle Tower, and the whole place was on fire. There were explosions and bangs, but Ethanish forces have stopped the bad guys from breaking out, and are bringing them back into jail.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Broke out of Jail

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap has broken out of the jail by zapping the pen that surrounded him, and getting the artillery cannon that pointed at him to spin around. He then kicked it off, hitting the security camera and making it malfunction. Then he blasted the radio and started to do combat with guards. Finally, they got into an elevator and went up, but Wu-Wu-Wu Zap blew up the elevator shaft and leapt on top of the elevator, opening it and cutting the wires. The people were thrown out, and the elevator came down. Then the elevator hit the floor and he kicked it at the pursuing guards, making them fly everywhere in the room.

Then, when another elevator came down, it was too late, because he had knotted up the elevator shaft in a tight knot! The elevator came crashing down onto the tight knot, banging and whacking around. That caused Wu-Wu-Wu's knot to fall out of place; it exploded because it got too tight. And the elevator came plummeting onto Wu-Wu-Wu Zap. Quickly, Wu-Wu-Wu Zap zapped it with his horn and kicked it at the same time, so it went careening into the wall beside it, causing a giant explosion so the security camera fell down. And then he blew up the wall and launched away.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap is now not in action, but is planning to start to battle soon.

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap Escapes Jail

We have designed a new type of jail that can hold four criminals at the same time, while having an entrance that opens up and eats bad guys so they come into the main chamber and can be put in the jail.

Santa Claus's fortress is hit by a unicorn missile, and Santa gives Bunny the order to spread some Christmas cheer. Bunny will do so, and Christmas will be restored to everywhere — including Wu-Wu-Wu Zap, although probably not.
