

TRAFFIC STILL HELD UP!

PRESENT TRAIN GETS HIT BY OTHER TRAIN AND HURT

ALL THE TRAIN TRACKS WERE ENTIRELY PULLED OFF THE LEDGE!

BINGO IMPERIAL THEATER CLOSED DUE TO WU-WU-WU ZAP ATTACKS

THE FELINE TIMES

Train Falls off Cliff

The train that was on the tram tracks that crashed into the street hit Present Train and then went off of the cliff. The train got disconnected, and the steam engine shot across the Living Room, hitting the bookshelf and exploding. Meanwhile, the train cars fell down, but something made the tracks fall down too. We are still investigating that. No one got hurt, and the train only caused a gigantic avalanche that damaged nothing except rocks in the bookshelf.

The weather will be rainy up until November 2. ☁️

Interview with Empress Emily

We will do an interview with Empress Emily today.

Tigger Jack: "Have you liked staying in Bingo?"

Empress Emily: "Yes! It was a very nice city, although looking out the window was terrifying."

TJ: "How do you like the new city being built?"

EE: "I love it, and I hope that it'll work out alright."

TJ: "How do you feel about Wu-Wu-Wu Zap?"

EE: "I hope that he will be stopped soon."

TJ: "Are you excited about the Great Pumpkin Festival?"

EE: "Yes! I hope that Wu-Wu-Wu Zap does not disturb it."

TJ: "Are you going to Disneyland?"

EE: "Yes, and I think that Blue Eyes is going too! I will tell you all about it."

TJ: "Thank you for participating in this interview."

EE: "You're welcome!"

Fuzz Leaps into Dollhouse

The picture on the left shows Fuzz in the kitchen/bathroom of the Dollhouse. We want to make a special cat room for him, but we do not know which one. We will probably want to do one in Bingo, though. Everyone thinks that Fuzz is super cute, except for Wu-Wu-Wu Zap and the Bad Guys. They do not like Fuzz because we like him, and they want to hold Fuzz hostage. But we are protecting Fuzz, and anyways, Fuzz would probably stop them.

Train Crashes into Bookshelf

The train that was on the train tracks crashed into the bookshelf and caused a gigantic avalanche. We think that the train pressurized enough to rocket towards the bookshelf. This happened last evening. No one was hurt in this explosion. There is no need to repair the damage because we do not have anything built there.

Great Pumpkin Show Today

Three new pumpkins are being brought into the show today. The one on the left is Mommy's, the one on the middle is Ethan's, and the one on the right is Hannah's.
