House Under Attack

Wu-Wu-Wu Zap's forces are even stronger than they were when they started out! He has over a million unibots and other units. We are in major trouble currently, with Bingo exploded. We must sail our fleet (including the ETH Dollhouse and a boat with Twinkle Tower and a few buildings from Bingo) towards the Box Forest, where there is a Unicorn Fortress named "Wuni is Rad". We will update you on when the fleet attacks, and make a newspaper.

House Out of Control!

There is a small congregation of troops in Ethan’s new room, as mentioned in one of the teasers on the front page. They are surrounded, but Godseala has come to help. Wu-Wu-Wu Zap’s unibots are attacking them.

The main article on the front page mentioned that Twinkle Tower, the Police Station, Binkevis Hotel, and the Castle (not in Bingo) were moved to a large ship that will accompany the fleet to the Box Forest, where the Ethanlish fleet will attack.
