Happy New Year!

Ethanland has won a trophy in the Raingutter Regatta. A celebration will happen on Valentines Day, in which the trophy will be part of the parade, and will be installed in the pond, at the Bingo Botanic Garden. The parade costs no money, and is fun for all!

Fuzz was heard at 5 a.m. yesterday, making retching noises. He vomits a lot, but when search teams mobilized, the vomit was missing. Search helicopters have been delayed, due to a battle with UNI forces.
